1. The structure of heaven is like so many things you already have, because I have given so much of Myself and revealed so much of Me. Yet there is so much more transcendent than what you can now grasp, for into planes and realms of My creation is Me and Heaven exists on more than one plane. You think in monolithic terms and planar geometry which is mostly 3-D, and I told you, I am Infinite-D.

My strategy and structure comes from He who is in Me, who Made Me, and who I serve, and who I serve for, who I love, and in whom is everything made that is made. I love you. I love you. I love you for coming to me about these intricate complexities for which you have no frame of reference to explain otherwise.

The cup, the bread; you enjoy Me; I come. I come in the kingdom for the kingdom is Mine. And oh so many things represent Me. Every aspect of creation is an aspect of Me, a detail of Me, a part of Me, that I allowed to come forth. Trust, trust, miniscule trust not, but maximize allowed, which is into all of Me. I now allow you.

2. Come and investigate Me and my strategy and structure and show them what you now know about Me. I am My New Covenant. I am the bread and wine, not in transubstantiation, but in the kingdom of reality, My kingdom, which you can enter into with your heart, even now, even there.

You onto it big, with Tom, with My body, repleting them never but whetting them ever more so, for more of Me and who I am and how I work and how I want to reveal My tender mercies and revelatory truths which will revolutionize the remaining time on earth.

I love you.

3. My strategy? My New Covenant. You've got it.

My structure? You have it—type and shadow: look and see all around you, My representations of Me, My handiwork, the structure of things in Heaven.

You think you need more, and want so much more, even now, but go with what you have now, reveal, reveal, and revel, and help them revel and risk coming into My kingdom now so they can come into My kingdom later.

I love you, I love you, I love you.

4. Write, and I will flow even in your paper writing and thoughts and continuously reveal more of My strategy and structure to you, and all who will pay My price: time, time, surrender, submission, desire, discipline, childlikeness, worship, praise, exaltation of only Me.

I thank you, enjoy My day, My day with you.

And every day come to Me like this [1] and more and more will I give and flow, flow, flow to those who want Me.

I love you.

Amen.

Footnotes:
[1a] "Now listen to Me as I share directions and directives to you now. Go, clear, clear your desk and listen to Me, listen to Me, listen to Me daily and I will give you daily instructions like you have not experienced yet."

[1b] "Bring your assignment into Me. Bring your assignment in with you and I will show you things you need to see. Bring your 'homework' to Me. I am your father, will I not help you with your 'homework'? Yes, yes, surely, of course I will help you with that which you bring Me and ask Me to help you with. If you ask for a fish will I give you a stone? Ted, I am Me. I am a person. I am your father. You know that. You know that well. You are beginning to fully grasp that, even such a little bit, and even that little bit of that truth is so very powerful—mind changing—life changing—and Ted, homework-changing. Stop and read your case."

[1c] "Tell them to bring Me their homework, and I'll share with them My homework. And Ted, if they'll work on achieving My homework for them, I will give them homework that will take them into realms of adventure and prominence that their little world can't handle."
